Gospel Reflection—Greg Sunter

The passage from the Gospel of John actually comes from the Last Supper account, as is indicated by the opening line: 'When Judas had gone'. However, the passage is being used during the post-resurrection Easter season. The passage about being glorified can be read in this context as referring to the crucifixion that was, rather than the crucifixion that is still to come in the original setting. The reference that Jesus will not be with the disciples much longer can also be read as an indicator towards the Ascension. It is a clever liturgical use of a gospel passage out of its intended context.

The second half of the gospel passage is perhaps the more familiar section. It is a common text for marriage ceremonies. However, sometimes its selection is purely based on the use of the term 'love'. Earlier in his ministry, Jesus was asked which commandment was the most important. He replied that you must love the Lord your God with all your heart and that you must love your neighbour as yourself. (Mt 22) The 'new' commandment that he issues at the Last Supper is not so much a new commandment as a variation on a theme. The newness highlights the changes that are occurring in the small group of friends. His language conveys an imperative: you must love one another, 'just as I have loved you'. He tells the disciples – and us – that the way they behave towards one another must be with the same love that Jesus treated them. And the love that Jesus gave was the love of God for all the world. So the love that Jesus commands the disciples (us) to show one another is nothing less than the powerful love of God.

Gospel Focus

God's Love

What does it mean to love as Jesus loved? The love Jesus poured out to all was an expression of God's love that has been poured out to all creation since the very beginning and continues to be poured out today. God's love doesn't keep score. When humankind turned its back on God, God's love continued to call them back to faithful relationship. God's love is not conditional – whatever we do, God continues to love us. There is no barrier that we can construct that God's love cannot get around. It is this sort of love that the new commandment demands of us.

Bible Trivia

In John 13:31-35, according to Jesus in this passage, how will people know that you are His disciples?

Answer: By loving one another.
Jesus said, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Living the Gospel – Love is all around

Love surrounds us all the time. It is impossible to turn on a radio without hearing 'love' used in one way or another. Love is the most common theme of songs, poetry, literature and art. Although we might bemoan the casual use of 'love', the fact remains that we fill our lives with the sounds and images of love. It's easier to imagine the all-pervasive nature of God's love when we recognise just how pervasive the commercial and artistic expressions of love have become. As Christian people, the challenge that faces us is to imbue these expressions with a richer, deeper notion of love.

MUDGEES NEWS

LADIES LUNCH

Friday 30th May 2025, following 12.30pm Mass, in the Parish Hall. Please contact Parish Office on 6372 2122 to advise attendance.

NEW TRIAL CARPARK ARRANGEMENTS

As of this weekend, if you intend parking in the Presbytery car park please take notice of the following changes. As shown in the diagram below: Drive to the end of the car park (before parking), turn around and proceed to park your vehicle at a 45 angle ie the nose of your vehicle will be facing towards Market Street, not away from it as has been the current situation. When you are leaving, you simply reverse out of your car space (towards the Presbytery garages) then drive straight out onto Market Street. We are trialling this new approach in an attempt to avoid further damage to the new cement driveway. Please DO NOT drive off the cement onto the grass. Many thanks for your cooperation.

Regina Caeli

During the Easter season, the universal Church prays the prayer Regina Caeli, or Queen of Heaven, to joyfully unite with the Mother of God in celebrating the Resurrection of her Son Jesus Christ, who conquered death in this way.

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.

R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.

V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.

R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

YOUTH REFLECTION

by Lisa-Marie Calderone-Stewart

Jesus, Love's Best Teacher

A major theme of the Scripture readings is 'Love one another'. This reading from Acts continues to trace the steps of Paul and Barnabas as they proclaim the Good News. Here we see them returning to some of the places where they had earlier established Christian communities to encourage the believers and help them stay steadfast in faith. They do not tell them that things will be easy, but that faith in Jesus will help them get through the tough times. The disciples also help the young churches choose leaders to stand on their behalf when they have to move on. They return home to their first community to share the exciting news of how much the young church has grown. They do not celebrate their own deeds, but the actions of God working through them.

Psalm 144 is a hymn of both praise and thanksgiving. God is described as gracious, merciful, even-tempered, kind and compassionate. Through all creation and the works of our own hands, we are to praise God. The second part of the psalm describes God's kingly virtues – mighty and glorious, with an everlasting Kingdom. Our God is both mighty and compassionate. All creatures great and small are called to love and praise our God.

The writer of the Book of Revelation describes a whole new world unlike anything we can imagine. In this totally new creation, good will never be overcome by evil and the new Jerusalem will fulfil all hopes for peace and happiness. God dwells in this new city and makes all things new.

Jesus gives us a new commandment in today's Gospel reading: Love one another. In this leave-taking message, Jesus tells us that being Christian means living in loving relationships with others – like the relationship Jesus has with the Father. People should be able to tell we are Christians by the way we love one another. This mission of love is not just for Jesus' Apostles but for all of us to live. We look to the life of Jesus to learn how to respect each

Jesus tells us to love each other as he loves us. How did Jesus show us that he loves us?

"By this love ... everyone will know that you are my disciples."
