

The Almighty works marvels for me. Holy his name!

Welcome to the Catholic Parishes of St Mary's Mudgee, St John the Baptist Gulgong, St Dominic's Kandos/ St Malachy's Rylstone.

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land on which we live, work and pray.
We walk on Wiradjuri country.
May we continue to love and respect the land as they have.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT—YEAR C 8TH DECEMBER 2024

First Reading: Baruch 5:1-9

Jerusalem – God will show you splendour.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 125. R. v.3

(R.) The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
it seemed like a dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs. (R.)

The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels
the Lord worked for them!'

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad. (R.)

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.

Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap. (R.)

They go out, they go out, full of tears,
carrying seed for the sowing:
they come back, they come back, full of song,
carrying their sheaves. (R.)

Second Reading: Philippians 1:3-6. 8-11

Show yourselves sinless and without blame in the day of Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths:
all people shall see the salvation of God.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 3:1-6

All people shall see the salvation of God

Advent Wreath

In today's readings we shall hear about the mission of John the Baptist, who was sent to prepare the way for the coming of Jesus, the light of the world.

We too are sent to prepare the way. As we light the second candle on the Advent Wreath, let us acknowledge our weaknesses and pray that we may be worthy of our mission to spread the light of Christ in the world, so that all may acknowledge Jesus as Lord.

Response: COME LORD JESUS

Lord Jesus, you are the light of the world...
You are the light in our darkness ...
Son of God save us from our sins ...
Bring hope into the lives of all people...

Prepare a way for the lord.

The season of Advent is a time in which we prepare for the Lord's coming. We prepare for the feast of Christmas which commemorates his first coming as a child in Bethlehem. And we prepare also for his final coming in glory. We do this by heeding John the Baptist's call to repentance, and by striving for 'peace through integrity, and honour through devotedness'.

REFLECTION by Fr Michael Tate

We are John the Baptists

Do we have to be like John the Baptist, eccentrically dressed and scavenging for food, to prepare the way of the Lord? No. You and I are called to be a John or Joan the Baptist, preparing people's hearts in our own time and place.

But we have to allow God to prepare our hearts for this role. John the Baptist challenges us to 'Repent', i.e. to turn around our own lives seeking God's forgiveness. John then challenges us to see the big picture which is that 'All who live shall see the salvation of God'.

Pope Francis is the exemplary universal pastor inspiring us to become 'les misericordiosos sin fronteras'. And young people through social media are already saying 'We are one community of human beings on this fragile planet'.

The challenge for most of us is more immediate and apparently of smaller scope. The challenge this Advent is to identify the one person whose heart you can help prepare to celebrate the coming of the Lord Jesus in three weeks' time. The best method is to let that person see your faith and joy centred on that little Jewish baby lying in a manger.

Do that, and who knows what may happen because that little baby is in fact the Sovereign Lord of history and of the whole cosmos. With God's grace, you don't have to be as eccentric or bizarre as John the Baptist to play your part in changing the course of history!

We could take a moment to pray that, repenting of our own sins where necessary, we may prepare the heart of at least one person so that the Lord Jesus may enter in this Christmas, helping him fulfil his mission that all who live shall see the salvation of God.

Candidacy to Holy Orders

Bishop McKenna will admit seminarian Ha Van Tran to the Candidacy for the Holy Order at 11am Mass at the Diocesan Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Carcoar, on Monday 9th December, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception.

Candidacy is the last step toward the Diaconate Ordination. The period from the admittance to the Candidacy and Diaconate Ordination is often six months to one year.

Ha had his pastoral year in our parishes last year. Please keep him in your prayers as he embarks on the new milestone on his journey to the priesthood. You are also most welcome to attend the ceremony at Carcoar on the 9th to express your support for him.

Each Christmas, Bishop McKenna highlights a grassroots project that transforms lives in places of great need. This year, we are supporting the construction of classrooms on Santo Island, Vanuatu, where students are learning in makeshift tents after devastating volcanic eruptions and cyclones.

Help rebuild hope and create lasting change for these children and their communities. Your donation today can give them the safe, inspiring learning spaces they deserve.

Visit our website to learn more about this vital mission and give the gift of a brighter future this Christmas.

Find a way Forward

Every soul enters this world the same way,
Colour, creed or gender, we had no say.
Each soul has a talent, a God given gift,
If used as intended, it will raise and lift.

There is really no need to envy and hate,
Just treat all as equal, they are your mate.
Offer some form of help for those in need,
Don't let our lives be over powered by greed.

Welcome others with a friendly smile,
Stop and chat with them for a while.
Offer to help and show them the way,
You may need help yourself one day.

Accept that everyone is not the same,
A different culture, a foreign name,
They can offer us many a new skill,
To those who have patience and the will.

There is no substitute for love and peace,
Creates bonds and friendships that never cease.
Conflict only brings sorrow and pain,
There really is nothing to gain.

Resolve your differences there is a way,
To not do so is too high a price to pay.
Those who use power in a horrible way,
Will pay a high price on their last day.

The world and its leaders need to unite,
Stop all the hatred and reason to fight.
Join hands together all nations as one,
God's Gift to mankind can finally be won.

Let Christmas be a time to show love,
Our prayers send to the Almighty above.
Reach out with a smile and show care,
God never forgets those who share.
