First Reading: Deuteronomy 26: 4-10

The confession of faith of the elect.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 90:, R. v.15

All: Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!' (R)

Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell. For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways. (R)

They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone. On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon.(R)

His love he set on me, so I will rescue him; protect him for he knows my name. When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you' I will save him in distress and give him glory. (R)

Second Reading: Romans 10: 8-13

The confession of faith of the believers in Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Gospel: Luke 4: 1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led by the Spirit through the wilderness where he was tempted.

Memorial Acclamation:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

Lent is a time when we are reminded that there is nothing we can do to win our salvation. It is a pure gift from God. Like Jesus in the wilderness, we are to allow God's plan to unfold in and through us. Lent is a time for us to enter actively into the mysteries of the death and resurrection of Jesus, and there to marvel at what God has done for us.

The temptations of Jesus are the same temptations that we face when we are inclined to think that somehow we are in control. While the goals of the temptations may be admirable – feed the hungry, bring the world under the control of good, trust in God's power to protect us – we often choose to accomplish them in ways that are less than admirable. We try to perform the extraordinary so that what we do reflects favourably on us. We use brute force in order to achieve control. We put God to the test rather than live peacefully with God's plan as it unfolds within and around us. We seek to become the super-hero, the super-minister, the super-Christian on our own. In his responses to the tempter, we see Jesus constantly deferring to the power of God: It is not by bread alone . . . worship only God . . . do not put God to the test. In a real sense, these temptations are a reminder that the fundamental temptation is to deny our human limitations and refuse to let God be God for us.

REFLECTION FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

by Lisa-Marie Calderon-Stewart

The Hebrews were not happy with their slavery in Egypt. But they were not thrilled with being isolated in the desert either. In some ways, that was worse. But Jesus actually chose to retreat into the desert. He followed the guidance of the Holy Spirit in his life and ended up in the desert for a long time.

Have you ever felt as if you were in a desert, alone and isolated – escaped from an old place perhaps, but not yet arrived at a new place? Which was worse – the place you had escaped from or the desert place? Why? What moved you to get on with your life journey in order to actually arrive at the new place? Or are you still in the desert? How do you know?

Jesus retreated to the desert because the Holy Spirit led him there. Has the Spirit ever led you to a place that ended up being a desert? Did you ever do 'the right thing' and end up alone and isolated? What happened? Were you surprised? angry? at peace? How does the bareness of desert-life give way to the rich fullness of growth-life?

Is there anything good about a desert experience? Without other distractions, all you have is yourself and God. In that situation, is it easier or harder to get closer to God?

Is it possible to become more in touch with God and not become more in touch with yourself? Why or why not? How does being in touch with yourself help your relationship with God? How do you get in touch with yourself?

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large tray of apples. A nun lettered a note and posted it on the apple tray: "Take only ONE. God is watching."

Moving along the lunch line, at the other end was a large tray of chocolate chip cookies. A girl wrote a note, which she put next to the tray of cookies, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEKEND:

Genesis 15:5-12, 1,7-18

Ps 26: , 7-9, 13-14. R. v. 1

Philippians 3: 17-4: 1

Luke 9: 28-36

Bishop McKenna's Lenten Message ~ 2019

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we begin our Lenten observance this year, the words of Jesus from last Sunday's Gospel may be ringing in our ears:

How can you say to your neighbour, 'Friend, let me take out the speck in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbour's eye. (Luke 6:42)

Lent is a time for each one of us to enter that private room of prayer and conscience where God will meet us and speak to our hearts. We cannot see into other people's hearts, but with God's mercy we can begin to see our own. Only by opening ourselves to the Holy Spirit can we begin to recognise those things in our own lives that cloud our vision of reality and truth. And only the forgiveness of Christ can remove the blindness that belongs to sin.

Last year, we began Lent with four days of prayer and fasting for all who have suffered sexual abuse as children, especially in our own church family. Those prayers must continue as long as their suffering endures; so must our work as genuine followers of Christ to build communities that are safe for children and the vulnerable.

Last week, we were stunned by the news of Cardinal Pell's conviction, which he is appealing. I have said that I would refrain from public comment on that case until the appeal process is concluded. Whatever the outcome, these are testing times for all of us who belong to the Church, but Jesus has taught us that authentic faith tested grows clearer and stronger.

Mary, Mother of our Redeemer, Untier of Knots, Our Lady of the Central West, accompany us on this Lenten journey and show us the face of your Son, that in his merciful gaze our eyes may be opened and our faith purified and deepened.

ZIMBABWE - Thandolwayo's story

Life in her village in north-western Zimbabwe wasn't easy for 12 year old Thandolwayo.

Thandolwayo lives with her grandparents and attends the local school which has just 35 students.

Every morning Thandolwayo would walk seven kilometres and risked being attacked by crocodiles as she collected contaminated water for her family. She'd then go to school feeling exhausted.

Thandolwayo's grandparents sell pearl millet bran to fishermen and farmers for animal feed. They also sell chickens - but the income it brings isn't enough to support the family.

Thandolwayo's hope to be a nurse seemed almost impossible to realise, until Caritas Hwange helped the village to install two solar powered pumps and two 10,000 litre water storage tanks. The pumps draw the water up from the river to the storage tanks.

Thanks to Caritas' support, water is now on tap in the village, benefitting the whole community - and Thandolwayo can concentrate on her education.

"Now I can bathe every day, the distance to collect water for the family has been reduced," Thandolwayo says. "We now drink clean, safe water and diseases are no longer affecting us."

The plentiful water supply has also triggered new ventures. Water is being used to mould bricks for building houses and to pound maize to sell. Plans are underway to establish a community garden and a fish pond, to generate a better income.

"Hope is important because it makes me work harder so that I achieve what I want to be when I grow up," Thandolwayo says.

Your support of Project Compassion helps people like Thandolwayo to survive.

Catholic Parishes Mudgee, Gulgong, Kandos/Rylstone

Love divine, all love excelling.

Love divine, all loves excelling,
joy of heaven to earth come down,
fix in us thy humble dwelling,
all the faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion,
Pure unbounded love thou art;
visit us with thy salvation,
enter every trembling heart.

Come, almighty to deliver
We welcome into our parish family
let us all thy life receive Darbey Howard O'Sullivan son of Patrick and Katana and Scarlett Robbie Baker daughter of Joshua and Anna who were baptised this weekend.
Thee would be always blessing,
serve thee as thy hosts above,
pray and praise thee, without ceasing,
glory in thy perfect love.

Finish then thy new creation,
pure and spotless let us be;
let us see thy great salvation,
perfectly restored in thee:
Change from glory into glory,
till in heaven we take our place,
until we cast our crowns before thee,
lost in wonder, love and praise.

This is a story about four people named Everybody,
Somebody, Anybody and Nobody.

*There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it.
Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it.*

*Somebody got angry about that,
because it was Everybody's job.*

Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realised that Everybody wouldn't do it.

It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done!

So if you are Everybody,
Somebody, Anybody or Nobody
we need your help!
