First Reading: 2 Samuel 5:1 - 3

They anointed David king of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 121: 1 - 5. R. see v.2

Response: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house.' And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem. (R.)

Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord. (R.)

For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name. There were set the thrones of judgement of the house of David. (R.)

Second Reading:

Colossians 1: 12 - 20

He has taken us into the kingdom of his beloved Son.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 23: 35-43

Lord remember me when you come into your kingdom.

Memorial Acclamation:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

"The kingdoms of this world sometimes build themselves on arrogance, rivalry and oppression; the kingdom of Christ is 'a kingdom of justice, love and peace ... to reign as He does means to serve God and the brethren - a service that flows from love: to serve for love's sake is to reign: this is the regality of Jesus.'"

Pope Francis, Angelus, 22.XI.2015

Reflection by Diane Bergant CSA

This feast celebrates the power and authority of Christ by creating a collage of images that capture one or more characteristics of Christ's kingship. Each image reinterprets the concept of king, investing it with new meaning. Gathered together they create a kind of litany that extols the kingship of Christ.

Shepherd and commander call to mind the care and protection that Christ lavishes on those who place themselves under his care. King of Israel is a sign of universal rule. Image of the Invisible God acclaims the divine origin of Christ and of the rule that he exercises over all. First born of all Creation places Christ over the entire created world. Source of all Created Things acknowledges both the sovereignty of Christ and his importance as the model after which all things were fashioned. Head of the Body, the Church underscores the intimacy and interrelationship that exist between Christ and all those who are joined to him through faith and baptism. Firstborn of the Dead not only acclaims Christ's resurrection, but it also guarantees the resurrection of those who will follow him into death. Crucified King is clearly the image that reinterprets all other images.

The entire liturgical year is brought to completion in the last words of the gospel: 'Today you will be with me in Paradise.' These are the words that we all long to hear, words that are empty when coming from one who has no authority, but charged with power when spoken by the one who is king over us all.

Quote for the week .....

LIFE IS Too short
TO BE
Ordinary

Advent

For many Christians unfamiliar with the liturgical year, there may be some confusion surrounding the meaning of the Advent season. Some people may know that the Advent season focuses on expectation and think that it serves as an anticipation of Christ's birth in the season leading up to Christmas. This is part of the story, but there's more to Advent. The word "Advent" is derived from the Latin word adventus, meaning "coming," which is a translation of the Greek word parousia. Scholars believe that during the 4th and 5th centuries in Spain and Gaul, Advent was a season of preparation for the baptism of new Christians at the January feast of Epiphany, the celebration of God's incarnation represented by the visit of the Magi to the baby Jesus (Matthew 2:1), his baptism in the Jordan River by John the Baptist (John 1:29), and his first miracle at Cana (John 2:1). During this season of preparation, Christians would spend 40 days in penance, prayer, and fasting to prepare for this celebration; originally, there was little connection between Advent and Christmas.

ST MARY'S PARISH ANNUAL PARISHIONER

CHRISTMAS FUNCTION

SUNDAY 8TH DECEMBER 2019.

IN THE CHURCH GROUNDS, 6.00pm.

All parishioners are invited to attend the annual Christmas function on Sunday evening, 8th December as we celebrate and give thanks for all who have contributed to our parish. We have so much to be thankful for. The simplest things all contribute to making our parish a place of welcome - just a smile or hello to someone you didn't know, a visitor or new parishioner. Everyone contributes in some way - ALL are welcome to attend.

As in previous years we invite you to bring a salad/sweet or BBQ chicken. The parish will provide the ham/rolls/tea & coffee and drink for the children. Other beverages BYO.

We would be grateful for any assistance to set-up and clean-up. 'Many hands make light work'; this way we all get to enjoy the night.

To assist with catering would you please place your name on the clipboards available at the back of the church. Please indicate the number of adults and children attending. Separate board for helpers.

GOSPEL CONNECTIONS

IN FOCUS

Good King, Bad King

When my daughters were little and I would read them fairy tales we'd often come across lands where the king was either bad or missing in action. And because the one who should have sat on the throne ruling

justly was either not on the throne, or

ruling unjustly,

the storybook

land had inevitably turned bleak and gloomy and the people were sad. Anyone who pays attention knows that fairy tales aren't just stories to amuse children and coax them into slumber. The best of them describe a world that mirrors the human psyche. They often have lessons for all of society, and for the home.

One point that applies is that if there is no benign sovereign in the home, the residents are lost, confused, and sad. Every family needs a person or persons at the family's core who act as a centre to hold everything together. That's how Saint Paul describes the kingship of the risen Christ. - "... in him all things hold together". Families know this need. When a parent is ill or suddenly missing, things at home don't hold together as easily. It's clear not any kind of "king" will do. Parents, guardians and grandparents can emulate Jesus, the servant leader, the king who was filled with compassion and whose trust in God kept his power intact, even when he seemed most powerless.

Christ the King is a title of Jesus in Christianity referring to the idea of the Kingdom of God where the Christ is described as seated at the Right Hand of God (as opposed to the secular title of King of the Jews mockingly given at the crucifixion).
